TAKE pleasure in announcing to my old friends and customore that after an absence of two years, I have again returned to resume the practice of the Photographic Art in all its branches, having purchased the interest of my brether in the old established Gallery in Union Street, and having spect four months in New York the past Summer to obtain fully all the late imprevements in the art. I have painted, renovated and enlarged the suite of Rooms throughout. That my facilities are now better to produce first class work than neat Galleries can boast of, and conduce to the comfort of our patrons. I trust not only to summ the proud position the Gallery has heretofore sustained, but to elevate at to a still higher standard. I have also engaged the services of Mr. COOK, one of the best Photographers in the world, who took the Pictures which obtained the first premium at the World's Far in London, in 1851, and I am determined not only to make this the leading Gallery in a Saste, but my work shall not be surpassed North or Son and new introduce to the public the following new styles:
